ATTENTION!

To Family Camp from Buster: Please let us know ahead of time how many kids will be going on trail rides. Thank you.

EAST CAMP: Don't Forget! All Scouts 14 years of age or 3rd year campers are invited to a special presentation in the East Camp Mess Hall. "Backpacking in the Porcupine Mountains," 8:30 P.M. tonight.

RIFLE MARKSMAN for the EAST CAMP is Pat Kelly with a very impressive 44 - that beats West Camp. Beat it if ya can West!!!

ARCHERY REPORT for the East at 10 yards was Pat Kelly, with an almost perfect 43. Then 20 yards was Pat again with a 28. Then at 30 yards was you guessed it, Pat again with 9.

FAMILY CAMP: Master Andrew Jensen won the Critter Crawl with his beloved turtle, Lucille. He was bestowed a trophy at a dinner held Wednesday night.

Miss Laura Bartosz was the first one to master the treacherous Killian Triangle. She swam the mile in 45 minutes. Top that Scouts!

Dear Jill,

Where should I go to curb that starvation in the middle of the day?

Signed,

Hungary

Dear Hungary,

You can't beat the Country Store for nutritious, tastey, yummy food, guaranteed to bring you back for more!

CONGRATULATIONS Tony on catching your 1st Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan fish. We heard it was a whopper. See, the Medics can catch something other than Kids with Colds!!

WEST CAMP: The Trip to Crystal Springs Fish Hatchery has been changed to Friday morning, 9:00 A.M. in front of the dining lodge. The cost for Transportation is 25¢.

WEST AQUATICS: Congratulations go out to Russ Tallman, Rod Morris and Mr. Bueble from Troop 79 who became are first mile swimmers yesterday. How about a bunch more West Campers?

WEST FIELD SPORTS: Russ Tallman, Troop 76, shot 4 out of 5 birds yesterday on the skeet range. Good shooting Russ!

SCOUTMASTERS & SPL's: Come down and sign up for a Troop Shoot. We have many trophies available.

EAST AND WEST CAMP: Carving Letters in shelters & tables. $2.00 per letter.

WEST CAMP WEATHER: The hope that it would not rain until Saturday was recently reported by this paper. But owing to conditions which were to late to report in yesterdays paper, we were caught with our pants down. Today the weather should break and become a wee bit warmer. Sunday it shall rain.

NOTICE: The Trading Posts in East and West Camps will be open from 9:00 A.M. to 10:00 A.M., Monday thru Saturday for purchase of program and related supplies. Candy, Soda, or food items will NOT be available for sale, during this hour.

HAVE A NICE DAY EVERYBODY!
