EAST CAMP

In yesterday's water polo games, Sioux ran over Delaware, 6 to 1; Chippewa narrowly lost to Menominee, 5 to 4; and Blackfoot squeeked by Cheyenne, 4 to 2. Today the semi-finals in the Bs' water-rat water polo tournament will begin. At 7PM tonight, the men of 210/310 will challenge the Troop 65 Block-busters. Tomorrow at 2PM, Troop 16 will meet Troop 31. The grand finale game will take place tomorrow evening. The winner will get a fantastic, tasty, luscious watermelon.

Today at 2PM Burgdorf and Co. will be demonstrating 2001 uses for toggle ropes. Even more importantly, good guy Larry will prove that toggle ropes and commando ropes are one and the same.

Authorities have been tipped off that a large Kangaroo is about 50 miles away and herding for camp. The expected arrival time is about 2 days away. It is hinted that he's looking for something bid and Brown.

On Sat., Aug 3, Burgdorf & Co. will be sponsoring a special staff snacks at 10PM in their commissioners area. This is in addition to our regular 3 times per week schedule. All these interested in coming should bring 25¢ to Steven Burgdorf. Don't forget the Lasagne dinner to be served Aug. 1 by Mrs. Peckard. All adult leaders and staff are invite.

East Camp Staff meeting after Lunch today.

FAMILY CAMP

Five people from Family Camp are going on the raft trip today.

At 5:30 tonight Family Camp will hold a hamburger roast.
