WEST CAMP

Jewish Services today at 5:00. Meet at the West Camp Office.

Troop 53 (Glenview) and Jim Bertholomew gave a delicious dinner last night in Lewis Village, West Camp. Those in attendance include Dave Smith, Bob and Alice Brown, Bob King, Pete and Pat Cooper, and almost the entire West Camp Staff. The meal included several Greek dishes that everyone seemed to enjoy; and was topped with Mr. B's outstanding Greek donuts.

Our congratulations to Joe Gordon of Troop 54, Clerk Village. He is the first scout at Ma-Ke-Ja-Men Scout Reservation to earn Horsemanship Merit Badge.

Come down this afternoon to the Northwoods Construction Co., Left Annex for a non-utensil and wilderness survival cooking demonstration.

See water boil in a paper cup, eggs fried in an orange, hamburger cooked on a rock and much, much more.

The Northwoods Construction Company, Left and Right Annexes and Central Office will be sponsoring a Patrol Flag Contest. Flags must be made at camp and materials can be obtained at the office, CM, Handicraft, Left and Right Annexes or anywhere you can find them. The contest ends at noon on Thursday, August 15. A scrumptidilyisious water melon will be awarded to the winning patrol.

Ken Golunke won the 7th period Silver Bullet with a high score of 45.

West Camp would like to thank Jack Server for his time and efforts spent in being a volunteer commissioner. Jack is from the Arrowhead District, where he is presently an Ass't Scoutmaster in T-5. After 10 years in Scouting he has been a Scoutmaster and Ass't. a neighborhood Commissioner, and a member of his training committee. During the year he is employed as a computer programmer. Our thanks are extended to Jack Server.
