ECHO'S ECHOS

A special thanks to Mr. Jim Keagle who has been serving for the past week as the East Camp Volunteer Commissioner for Delaware, Chippewa and Mohawk Villages.

Scoutmasters may pick up their troop advancement forms in the East Camp Office after the campfire tonight or early Friday morning. Please turn in your village flag and lock box (set at 000).

There will be a Campwide Campfire tonight. Meet in the Dust Bowl at 8:30 pm. Family Camp is welcome to attend.

There will be a retreat ceremony in the Dust Bowl tonight at 5:45. Come see the Bugling Quartet and a special guest soloist Rich "Liver Lips" Damisch.

All Merit Badge work must be completed by 5:00 pm today. All staff should have their advancement work into the office by 5:45 pm.

MA-KA-JA-DOWNS REPORTS:

Yesterday (7/23) at the East Camp Dust Bowl was a very close race. Eric Clark's frog named "Hot Rod" managed to cross the finish while "Herbie" Bob Bennes's frog sat right next to the finish line. Both scouts were from Shawnee Village, Troop 260.

East H₂O

Two scoutmasters lead 16 scouts in the East mile swim. That gives East Camp a total of 47 milers. This compared to the West 11. Good Luck today, West.

At five today, East Camp H₂O will be going 10 - 7 for this session. Hope all had a good time. Have a good trip back.

Come to the East Camp Trading Post for the Great Last Day Sale. There will be contests, prizes and low prices never seen before. This is the last day to buy your gifts for your parents. So come to the TP today!

Our thanks to that wonderful Wolfman at the East Waterfront for helping with Chippewa's floating campfire.

East Archery

Please pay up on all debts at the Field Sports area. If they are not cleared up after today, you will be billed at home.

Our Thanks to the many people who made our stay here a pleasant one, especially the Scouts, Scoutmasters, Family Camp Staff, East Camp Staff, Steve Sesterhenn, John Kyle and Mr. King. Where did the time go?????

Jim Keagle
