The weekly Critter Crawl Derby for 5th period was held yesterday pm, despite what track stewards described as "the hottest racing day in years". The field of seven entries (including a fine four oz. sample of granite) had trouble leaving the starting gate and many never made it to the finish line. Several of the owners agreed that perhaps their entries would have done better on a wetter, cooler track. The winner of the 5th week derby was "Toed" out of the Steve Turney Farms. 2nd Place was snatched up by the Rich Reid Stables entry, "Reid's Rock".
Third place was filled with an entry with a name bigger than the entry itself - "Wrup-pert The 28th" out of the Scott Irvin Stables.

Also entered were: Chris Hanes Scott Vorreyer Doug Irvin
John Hanley John Norlie

TO ALL CAMPERS:

Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan has much to offer. Among those many things is a beautiful place to enjoy the out-of-doors. The trails around Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan are getting more and more littered with trash everyday. Each one of us needs to make it our personal responsibility to keep Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan clean and beautiful so it remains a tremendous place to enjoy the out-of-doors. Let's get the trash picked up.
