

presenting

July 5, 1975

Vol 2

SMOKE SIGNALS

WAWBOWWAW

ECHO'S ECHOS

A Collector's Item!

The infamous "Fred" (MaKaJaPrison #263869) managed to escape last night despite the valiant efforts by Prison Warden Lee Matthews (Rumor has it that Warden Matthews was asleep on the job.)

Only 4 more days in the Ben Hunt Contest left - get up to the Handicraft Lodge and get to work.

"Ode to Mike Nagle"

I shot an arrow into the air
Where it lands, I do not care.
(I get my arrows wholesale!)

Don't forget to ask Rich Taylor how his Whippersnapple is today.

The Iroquois detective agency is investigating the strange circumstances surrounding the kidnapping of their beloved ex- Scoutmaster Jamie Thompson to west camp. Our agents have tracked down a few suspects and expect to have the case solved by the weekend and have Jamie back on the fair side of the lake once again. If you have any information leading to the solving of this case, contact Abdul, head detective.

Rumor has it that Roger Holman, East Camp Waterfront Director, melts in the rain.

Want Ads: Cheyenne Village and Menominee Village are in need of new methods of getting up on time in the morning so they can pick up their food and get to breakfast on time!

Eco-Kon:

The 6th running of the MaKaJaDowns will be run today. Bring any animal except mammals, birds, fish and staffman to the dustbowl at 2:30 pm.

A hike for men will leave M.E.S.H. at 2:30 The Green Mountain Men

WEATHER REPORT AND FORECAST

Eastern M.E.S.H.
Today: Continued drizzle, clearing in PM
Tonight: 40% chance of more rain, otherwise fair weather expected
Future Outlook: Chance of rain diminishing
Cooler temps expected
Data: Low - 52°F; High - 87°F
B.P. - 30.19" - rising
Precip - drizzle
Wind - 1mph - calm

WITNESS REPORT

Good Weather
for French Fries, Spuds,
Hash Browns,
mashed Potatoes,
Ratatouille

Station WWB

Today: high chance of rain with a decreasing chance later high in the 60's; low in the 40's
Green mountain boys: the little bird said it would rain.
Mother Nature's Sons

BARRY'S BRIEFS

Come one, Come all to the raising of the West Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Tower. Meet at the Handicraft Lodge at 7:00 TONIGHT!

Staff Soccer: After only 30 minutes of play last night, neither East nor West could score. The two goalies kept the game scoreless. The home fans left the Ma-Ka-Ja-Field disappointed after an action-packed game. Rumor has it that there will be a rematch.

Note: Last night's game proves that the only difference between East Camp Staff and West Camp Staff is that they are on different sides of the lake.

Any scoutmaster or adult who wish to take Cornerstone Training please meet in the West Camp office at 3:00 pm.

Words From Walt:

Silver Bullet - Randy Miller of T-5 with a score of 46.
Top Archer - Pat Ekman of T-17 with a score of 41

West Waterfront: Reminder to all scouts and scoutmasters, we will be holding a Mile Swim on Wednesday and Thursday at 3:00 pm.

Now that we are finished with soccer, how about volleyball East Staff? Just tell us when you are ready.

NO Scouts will be allowed in the Country Store without an adult leader.

Included in this issue is a Special Collector's Anti-litter Poster. One copy should be posted on every Troop bulletin board.

