General News, Sir!

WELCOME BACK, CHARLIE!!! HOPE YOU'RE BETTER!!!

Both camps will retire the colors at 5:45 this evening for the final retreat of the fourth period of this 1976 camping season. Assemble in your best Scouting attire at your respective flag pole.

Jewish services will be conducted at 5:00 this evening at the chapel. Please meet at your respective camp offices at 4:45.

All Merit Badge work should be completed by 5:00 tonight... Counselors get your merit badge materials turned in as soon as possible!

All equipment checked out of the quartermaster should be returned by 4:00 today.

There will be a campfire in each camp this evening. All troops should assemble by their respective flag poles at 8:15.

Program areas will be closed Friday evening. Closing Village Guides will report to each village after dinner to start taking down the campsites.

Reville Saturday morning will be blown at 6:00AM!!!

Scoutmasters may pick up their advancement materials Saturday morning any time after 6:30 AM in your camp office. Please return your lockbox and American flag at that time.

East Camp:

Personal gear for those Scouts going home on the Council busses should be brought to the Scoutmasters' parking lot by 8:00 PM Friday. Keep only that gear which you need for the night. Remember to be in UNIFORM!

Garfunkel and a host of others from East including the East Camp Director and that Bronze Buddha himself completed the Killian Triangle Thursday afternoon. Congratulations to all, especially Gar.

West Camp:

Success again! Swannie Joe Commissioner Site witnessed Scouters making a pie, meatloaf on a stick and Joe's cooking an egg on a spit. Needless to say we all skipped lunch.

John Thompson from Troop 50 won the Silver Bullet for the fourth time with a score of 46 and will take it home with him.

Wabaningo: Congratulations once more to Lyle Watts, Jack Sanderson, and Richard Keske who all swam the mile on Thursday morning... BEFORE BREAKFAST!! In addition to this feat (unsurpassed by either East or West camp) Wab has had the only TWO MILE SWIMMER!!

Sports News: The West Camp soccer team was the winner over East 2 to 1, winning on goals by T. Green and J. Behles with a fluke goal by Barnes.

Weather: Increasing light early in the day followed by gradual dark-
