ADMINISTRATION BUILDING: I would deeply appreciate all activities or information for the Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan Smoke Signals be on my desk at the Ad Bldg. by 9:30 a.m. daily unless other arrangements were previously made. Thank you, Jill.

The following staff members have yet to complete their W-2 Forms or have yet to get to me their Social Security Number. Please come to the Ad. Bldg. as soon as you have a spare minute and take care of this, so I can keep OUR boss happy!

Tom Boutin - W-2 forms; Dave Cahill (S.S.#); Jim Johnson (S.S.#); Don Sesterhenn (W-2 forms); Arvilla Thorne (W-2 forms); Richard Moore (W-2 forms); Ian Hopkins (signature).

LOST: One Fleese lined Staff jacket and sunglasses. If found, their Swannie's!

WEST CAMP WEATHER: Clearing with cooler temperatures. Situation will remain stable until Saturday. Sunday is expected to be a wee bit wet.

WEST FIELD ARCHERY: Yesterday, down in the Sherwood Forest, which contains the famed Archery Range of Little John, Lerry Williams was shooting deadly again as he defeated Willie Boyen in Match 3 to 1. Also down in Archery range, Chip Warren of Troop 150 won the Archer of the day with a 23 at 30 yards.

"DON'T FORGET" All Scouts 14 years of age or 3rd year campers are invited to attend a special presentation tonight at 9:00 p.m. in the West Camp Dining Hall. "Backpacking the Porcuping Mountains"

WEST CAMP: Leather workers don't forget about Leather Workers of the week contest! Come down and see what your little hands can make, and see what you can win.

EAST & WEST CAMPS: Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan Fishing Derby, "The Pike Division", will begin on Wednesday (today) at Dinner and continue on til Friday at Lunch. Make sure you register all Pike caught. Good Luck!!

TRIANGLE "M" RANCH: The Staff is more than welcome to go out on the overnight camping expeditions. See Head Wrangler, Buster Kolb, for more information.

EAST HANDICRAFT: SPECIAL NOTICE: Dave Meyer of Troop 97 is in the Top running of the Wallet of the Week Contest. If there's some questions to be answered, come on down to the Area.

EAST ECO-CON: There is a fish-hatchery trip after Lunch, Thursday. Please bring $.25 (25¢) for the bus ride.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Where ever you go, there you are....

TRIANGLE "M" RANCH: Kids going on overnight trail rides, bring a day pack or small backpack to carry your things in, instead of tying them to the back of the saddle!!!

MERIT BADGES are for Sale at the Administration Building!
