FAMILY CAMP: We're now heating the family camp pool, so everyone can enjoy a delightful plunge...

WEST CAMP WEATHER FORCAST: I QUIT! I can not take this rotten weather anymore. Maybe if you flip a coin - heads for rain and tails for rain - you'll get the proper weather forecast.

WEST H₂O: Nobody swam the Killian Triangle yesterday.

There will be a S.P.L. meeting right after lunch in the West Camp Office about the West Camp Fire Prevention Program.

There was plenty of fire at East Field Sports last night as Troop 195 blew the centers out. The Cobras emerged the victorious patrol. Two Round Honors went to Cary Brown with 63. In the Single Round, Andy Eisler was tops with 34.

On the Archery side, the coveted Archers Arrows changed hands several times with Mike Hill proving to be the man of the day, taking first on the 20 and 30 yard courses with scores of 31 and 24. Pat Kelly remained unchallenged at 10 yards.

WEST FIELD SPORTS: High shooter of the day, Chris Cornwell, 42. Good job Chris. Also, to EAST Camp, the day before yesterday, we had a 47. It is posted in the West Camp T.P. TRY to beat that East Camp, if ya can.

MICHAEL LICHTENBERGER and CHRIS CORNWELL both made the National Rifle Association team here at Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan yesterday. Way to go guys.

ORDER OF THE ARROW: Tonight, West Camp will meet at 8:20 at the Flag Pole. East at 8:30 at the Dust Bowl and Family Camp at 8:30. Left shoulder should be bare, and no light are to be brought.

WEST ARCHERY (alias) SHERWOOD FOREST AND LUMBER CO. Yes, today Jaime Bowen of Troop 150 tied Chip Warren's score of 23 at 30 yards. Other news is that a bowhunter contest is being held by Little John for all that are interested in action archery shooting. A prize will be awarded to this gifted Scout!! All that are interested in the details ask Little John.
