Vol. V No. 30  (THE ONLY DAILY NEWSPAPER IN PEARSON, WI.)
July 31, 1978

Hi, everybody! Is everybody ready to face a new day and a new week? I hope you all have a fantastic week. The weather is supposed to be cool, chance of some rain---oh goody, we haven't had any rain for a long time. (UGH!!!) Oh, well, think happy!

WEST CAMP---There will be a campwide Retreat at 5:45 PM. Welcome to the new Scoutmaster in Carson, Norm Gollub. We haven't forgotten your birthday. Scouts of Troop 17, Norm is a very sound sleeper and needs to be awakened at 7:00 every morning.

There will be a meeting of all Scoutmasters, Wednesday August 2, in the dining hall at 4:00. Please be on time. "Swannie"

Reminders, Again: On daily inspections of villages, there have been fires burning with Scouts and Scouters absent from the village. Each tent should have a minimum of one red bucket full of water. Red buckets are available from the Camp Q.M. Be sure your fireguard charts are completed and posted. New charts are available from the W.C.D.

Be sure your Scouts pick up their food for patrol cooking.

Field Sports---Silver Bullet winners: Saturday, Ron Gadek, Troop 55---score 46; Sunday, Mark Booras, Troop 39---Score 44. If you want a real good time, go down to Field Sports. (SILVER)

Ray's Bleachers: Today is the "Positively Purely Perplexing Penny Plopping Party." Plop a pretty penny through 5 pulsating gallons of water into a 1978 mug below and take home that mug to Papa or Mama.

On this wet day, remember, ponchos are specially reduced to $13.10.

Sports Scoreboard---The Phillies lost, the Pirates lost, and the Cubs dropped two. But, Cub fans, we are only 4½ out of first. World Series, here we come!!!! (You have got to be kidding!!)

postmarked from the West Kitchen with Order of the Arrow stationary. Whoever it is should be shot or thrown in the Lake.

This n' That-Any troop that has not already done so, and would like to have a troop photograph, let your Camp Director know as soon as possible. The cost for Troop pictures is $5.00. This includes the session where the camp photographer takes a few shots of the whole group, develops them and you get a BIG 11 x 14 glossy of your troop. Now, if you'd like to get individual 8 x 10 pictures of the troop for all it's members, they can be purchased for only $1.00 apiece. Quite a deal, eh? and a good take home gift for parents.

Scoutmasters-If you plan on taking your whole Troop down to "The Country Store", please let the gals in the store know ahead of time, so they can try to arrange a time for you. Otherwise, they might wind up with two or three troops there at one time, and that is just a little crowded. So, please let them know ahead of time.

Country Store Hours: 10-12; 1-2; 3-5; and 7-9:30. Stop by and enjoy an ice cream delight.

EAST CAMP-East Camp would like to say welcome to Troop 36 from Oakerro District. We hope that you have a most enjoyable stay here at Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan Scout Reservation. Just a reminder, tho--- Arne and Dennis, keep your eyes open for "Suzy"!!!!!!

Tonight at 5:45, there will be a formal retreat in the dust bowl to honor our country's flag. We encourage all troops to attend in full uniform.

Scoutmasters and SPL's-Make sure that you check the bulletin board at the outpost commissary to see when your troop has shower clean-up duty. Also, make sure that all paper around the building is disposed of in the trash barrels placed in front of the outpost commissary, if it is your day for clean-up. Thanks, much.

Tuesday is East's day for horseback riding. If you would like to go, here's the info you need to know--sign up with Jim Johnson at 1:00 today in the East Camp Office. The cost is $3.00 per rider and rides leave the ranch at 2, 3, and 4:00 PM. There are 8 places open per hour. Gents, it's a great time and a heck of a good way to spend an hour of your time.

FIELD SPORTS-Well, guys, you've got one week left to shoot your NRA targets, so hurry down to the rifle range (Ticonderoga) and blast some holes in the paper.

Sign up for a troop shoot and join the "Race for the Watermelon."

!!!! QUESTION OF THE WEEK!!!!

You'll win 5, yes FIVE blocks of ammo, if you can answer this question. Name the five Indian tribes that were known as the Five Nations of the Iroquois?

You'll win three free blocks if you can give me the English name of the fort that the French called Fort Duquense.

Into the annals of history will go the Battle of Sherwood Forest.

FAMILY CAMP-Congrats to Cheri Penley, who swam the Killian Triangle. With so much wind that day, we figure she swam 1½ miles. Keep swimmin, Cheri.....

Welcome all new families!!

There will be a Fish Hatchery trip Wednesday morning. Cost will be 50¢ per person. Time will be posted later.

That's all for now, folks!! Despite the gloom outside, smile, and make it a good day, anyway. See ya'.
