SMOKE SIGNALS

Well, it looks as if we might get some rain today--I hate to admit it, but we really could use some. During the first few weeks of camp, we had so much rain, that we all thought we would never want to see anymore, but, maybe a little shower would help to settle the dust, and brighten up the trees and grass and all the plants--right now, they are all covered with dust. So-o-o-o, for a change, let's all think rain--not alot, but, a little. Maybe it would help cool things off some, too.

WEST CAMP--Come one, come all, to the West Skeet Range's Grand Reopening. There will be games for the kids, lots of prizes for everyone. Even a treasure hunt. So, come on down and try your skill. Remember shotgun shooting is a blast!!!

West, West, West Eco/Con-PROJECT DAY is today, so if any plant, animal or vegetable needs a project for their merit badges, come down to the Eco/Con Lodge at 2:00 PM.

EAST CAMP--Today is East's day to go horseback riding. If you'd like to go, sign up with Jim Johnson right after lunch in the East Office at 1:15 today.

Field Sports--Cheyenne Village, Troop 11, has a troop shoot from 4-5 today, while Blackfoot Village, Troop 3, has one scheduled for this evening from 7-8.

Mike White, Troop 1 has the lead in the competition for the Silver Bullet. His score of 45 is the same score that he himself beat last week to grab the Bullet, so I'm sure that there will be a lot of Scouts seeking to better his score. Anyway, nice shooting, Mike!!

Mr. Spiecker's score of 48, propels him into the lead for the hard sought-after "Order of the Hunk of Lead". I wish you's ease up, Hans, I have trouble counting that high even with my fingers and toes.

Archery Division--Remember that; Napoleon returned; Gen. McArthur returned; the Pink Panther returned, and now William Tell Returns. Watch for more details.

That's all for today, folks. Oh, yes--The Klutz Sisters didn't have to run around the Dining Hall to get wet. All they did was walk out the door. Nice try, girls, but you are going to have to run faster than that to get away from the West Staffers.
SMILE--it doesn't cost a thing!!
