Smoke Signals

Vol. 6

(The Only Daily Newspaper in Pearson, Wi.)

No. 4

June 27, 1979

Well, believe it or not folks, I think I've finally gotten the heading correct on Smoke Signals. Each day, there has been an addition to the heading, that I seemed to have forgotten since last year. Maybe now, I've got it right. Anyway, Wednesday is going to be a really great day--the sun is bright, the sky is blue, and the temps are supposed to be in the 80's. We have really been lucky so far this week, so take advantage of the good weather, and get out and enjoy!!!

WEST CAMP NEWS-All Scouts and Scouters: Visit the Scoutcraft area and discuss your problems with Mr. Peabody. Any Scout interested in pioneering merit badge, sign up now. The monkey bridge is being started--all help welcomed--even sightseers.

As Eric says, "We don't play games (Mr. Peabody) here at the waterfront. Everything here is a life and death matter." Then gives us his famous Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan blurry eyed smile.

Once again, horse back riding at the ranch from west Camp is on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 2-3 and 4:00. Maximum riders is ten. See "Swannie".

All adults are invited to the Scoutmasters' lunch at the Commissioner site at 12:30, Thursday. (All adults in West Camp, that is.)

West O/A Members-we need help tonight!!!!!!!

ORDER OF THE ARROW-There will be a ritual team practice at 1:00 at the O/A Bowl, for all members. Tomorrow there will be a work project at the O/A Bowl for ALL Order of the Arrow members-8:15 PM.

EAST CAMP NEWS-Trading Post-Today is Hansman's favorite item day, at your neighborhood East Camp TP. Stop by for details. Geurnsey

Welcome to CAMELOT! Lumberjack day will arrive on lunch tomorrow and run into the afternoon program for all you East 50er's. Scouts will dress like lumberjacks for the lunch and dinner meals. Competition will be from 2:00-5:00 with lumberjack activities being the theme.

There will be an SPL meeting in Camelot at 2:30 for last details.

Shower duty toady: Chippewa Village.

(More, coming)

Tonight at the East Camp dining hall is MOVIE night, which is better known as the "Silver Screen Sensational". Tonight's flick is "Menagerie" from the "Star Trek" series. It will start promptly at 8:30 PM, so be there!!!

Remember, Thursday is East Camp horseback day--so, if you want to go clippity-clop, see Tom, (Better known as Big Mac) after lunch.

Eco-Con-Environmental Science people, get movin' on these oral requirements! Papermakers, come check your projects. Also, there is a fish hatchery trip in the making. Interested? If so, contact Dave Soloway or Ken Kaufman at Camelot.

EAST CAMP FIELD SPORTS--PLEASE NOTE: THE FLAG AT THE FIELD SPORTS AREA IS NOT TO BE TAMPERED WITH. PERIOD!!! ANYONE CAUGHT, WILL BE REFUSED ADMITTANCE TO THE AREA FOR THE REST OF CAMP. LARRY

FAMILY CAMP NEWS--There will be a BIG camp fire tonight in the family camp circle. Everyone is invited, especially if you have any contributions, such as songs and skits. Come enjoy the Zitzewitz girls, Carol Phleger, Kristi & Andy Jensen, Joe & Molly Farrington and Chris King. Don't miss these "once in a life time" acts.

Families are invited to partake in a delicious meal with their troop Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. Meet your Troop at the dining hall at 5:45. Cost will be $2.00 for adults and $1.50 for children 10 and under.

Have a good day!!

Come and eat all the ice cream you want, in the Country Store. It's so-o-o-o-o good!!!!)

Well, that about wraps it up for this time. Remember, smiling doesn't hurt a bit--in fact, it's rather pleasant.

FLASH!! Harold Simons, Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan Fishing Guide, will be at The Fishing Outpost Camp today at 2:00 PM.

Scouts who would like to sign up for Fishing Merit Badge, may talk to Mr. Simons this afternoon. The Fishing Camp is located on the East shore of Lake Killian approximately 1/8 mile north of the Chapel.
