Well, gang, we did it. Between the bunch of us, we got the rain to stay away. Of course, our own private "Angel" says that it is because she has an "in" with "You Know Who"--and Val says it is because she did her "go away rain" dance, but, whoever did it, or whatever did it, last night the weather was perfect for the O/A Callout. Eric breathed a sigh of relief when the fire performed right on cue. Good job--well done, to all involved.

We have a riddle: What is it that is green and moves like a bolt of lightning? What is it that has been requisitioned by just about everybody who has seen it? What is it, that once you get it started, does not want to stop?? Read on for the solution!!!

WEST CAMP NEWS-Eric, the Explorer, does it again. A great fire was enjoyed by all. Congratulations to all the O/A Arrowmen for a job well done.

The bridge is up!! Scouts may use it only with permission of the Commissioner Staff. Next project will be started soon, so any Scout wanting pioneering merit badge or just to help, see the Commissioner Staff.

All West Staff, be sure to check at the end of the day, for new assignment lists.

Any units interested in Rafting or Canoe Trips--there is plenty of time open next week. Time for horseback riding can be arranged for any day of week, regardless of which camp you are in.

Happy Birthday, Chuck--we will find time soon--when you least expect it!!

Eco-Con-All Environmental Science People-Report in on Sunday afternoon, at the Ecology/Conservation lodge. Bring your shady area sheets.

ORDER OF THE ARROW-PIT's will be at 7:00 PM, at the West Camp Fire Bowl for all O/A members interested. We will also be making applesauce at 9:00 PM.

EAST CAMP NEWS-A second chance for message day at your neighborhood East TP. I'll be there!!!!

So long to Troops 10, 13, and 63. East Camp hopes you had an enjoyable week and a super time. Have a safe journey home, and we hope to see you all again next year.

Jewish Services will be held today at 5:00 PM in the Chapel.

There is still no word on the lost coupon book that was reported in "Smokes", so once again--the book number is 1 8 7 3. All areas, do not accept this book, or any coupons that may have been torn from the book, until further notice.

Well, folks, that is about all for this time. Oh, I almost forgot the riddle. The answer is a Harold. If you know Harold, you know what I mean. But, don't try to requisition him anymore--he has been assigned permanently to the Fishing Outpost to work with another Harold--Mr. Harold Simons, who is our Fishing Counselor. If you want to see two "super-whizzes" at work, just drop by the Fishing Outpost and watch H & H at work!!!

Have a super-terrific day--enjoy the warmth--enjoy the sun--matter of fact, just enjoy!!!

.....NEWS FLASH.....Mr. Ruchard Moser from Troop 160 informs "Wanda Weather woman" that he is unable to wear the new chic Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan shorts. Comments Mrs. M. (the wife) "Knobby knees." WWW
