How did you like the heat yesterday? A few days ago, we had some folks asking for the thermostat to be turned up, so, we did it yesterday. Was it hot enough for you?? Well, hold on to your hats, 'cuz it's going to be just about the same today. So, try to stay cool and calm, think cool thoughts, and just enjoy the sun. At least with sun, you don't get all wet from moisture falling from above.

FROM WEST CAMP-Don't forget horseback riding at 2-3 and 4:00. Ten is maximum.

The Scoutcraft Area will start soon on a new high-rise project. Scouts interested in pioneering merit badge, see your Commissioner-NOW!!

Raft trips coming up this week: Thursday-Bowie & Clark. Friday-Carson. There are still some openings for Raft & Canoe Trips.

Any Scout or Scouter interested in a trip to the fish hatchery or the paper mill, see the Eco-Con Director.

T.P.-The Buzz Bomb might go off. If the bomb goes off while you're served, win a free candy bar. Rosey

What is this we hear of the local Menominee Tribe has ordered five new totem poles from the Noname Tribe here at Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan.

FROM THE AD BUILDING-NOW AVAILABLE-50th Anniversary Commemorative Plates-They are here--they are available at the Country Store. They are for sale for $11.00. Please note-this money goes to cover the cost of our new 12x14 walk-in freezer, which is being constructed next to the Commissary. Buy a plate-help pay for the freezer, which will help Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan!!!

CAMP WIDE NOTICE-LOST!! Sometime between the end of Period 2 and the beginning of Period 3, one of the Scouters lost an Eddie Bauer x-long red down vest in a blue stuff bag. PLEASE return to the Ad Building, if you happened to find it.

FROM EAST CAMP-Program areas closed tonight. You are all invited to the dining hall to be entertained by a super fantastic movie. Jack Lemmon and Ernie Kovacs starring in "Operation Mad Ball". It will start at 8:30 PM.

Thanks to Troop 21 for the invitation and fun yesterday afternoon. TM
