No. 19

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY, EVERYBODY!! This is it--the start of the BIG weekend. And it will really be a full weekend, too. We have O/A Cerenony this evening-and the 50th celebration for the balance of the weekend. The way things look, just about every minute is going to filled with things to do and see. So, if you are sitting around feeling bored, it sure isn't our fault. But, Please, everyone, please think SUN. We need nice weather to make things complete, so, come on, sunshine!!!

FROM WEST CAMP-This is O/A Day. Starting with lunch, all Arrowmen should wear their sash.

Retreat at flagpole-5:45. Full uniform.

All Scouts and Scouters will meet at the flagpole at 8:45 PM, for the procession to the O/A Bowl. If you have guests arriving, please tell them that they will NOT be permitted to drive to the Bowl. A bus will be available.

Staff-Troop 6 and Troop 510 will leave tomorrow. Be sure all merit badge work reaches me by 5:00 today, July 13.

ATTENTION-ORDER OF THE ARROW-Any O/A member who wishes to participate in Saturday night's O/A feed, will need to purchase IN ADVANCE, a ticket which will allow you to attend. No one will be admitted without a ticket. The tickets, which will cost $1.50, will be available in East and West Camp Offices, and the Registration Trailer. Ticket sales will stop at 6:00 PM, Saturday evening. Please be sure that any visitors that your unit is expecting, who are O/A members, are aware of this procedure. This is necessary, so that we can get an accurate count for the Feed.

FROM EAST CAMPThere will be a retreat in Dust Bowl at 5:45. Full uniform should be worn.

Chippewa Village has shower clean up today. See your Commissioner.

Tonight at 8:45, all East Camp Units are to assemble in the Dust Bowl for the procession to the O/A Callout. All O/A non-members are to leave their left shoulder bare.

Jewish Services will be held at the Chapel at 5:00 PM.

Waterfront-There will be an important SPL meeting Friday night after supper in the East Camp Office concerning the Water Carnival.

(Read On)

Eco-Con-Tonight at 7:00 there will be an edible plant demonstration and snack at Camelot.

Field Sports-Troops planning on entering Archery Shoot Off on Saturday, please contact us by 5:00 today, so we can be sure of time scheduling. Note time change-10:00 - 11:00 AM. Troop 248 has Troop Shoot today at 4:00 to 5:00 PM. This is the last troop shoot this week. Watermelon will be awarded at dinner for the top scores. Good luck to all. NRA guys-let's go to it. Leadfoot

All Campers both East and West, who are taking Pulp & Paper Merit Badge. The Rhinelander Pulp Mill Trip will leave the East Camp Visitors Parking lot at 1:15. It will pick up West Campers at the Ad Building at about 1:30. Cost is $1.50.

Family Camp-Laurie Paddock, Kristi Jensen and Dale Gade swam the Killian Triangle yesterday with lots of energy to spare. Jessie Gade, the rower, said she couldn't stop and rest for an instant. They are very strong swimmers and we're very proud of them.

Anyone interested in going to the Pulp Mill, meet at the Ad Building at 1:30. We're not guaranteeing you a seat, but we'll try. Cost is $1.50 per person.

That's all for this time!! Today is busy, busy, busy, but take a minute or two, and maybe even do a "Go Away Rain Dance" so we can have good weather for this weekend. Everybody think SUN, and maybe it will work. In the meantime, S-M-I-L-E!!! See ya'.....

COME ON SUN!
