No. 21

Good morning!! How is everybody this beautiful, bright day? Did you have a nice weekend? If you didn't keep busy, and have enough to do, it sure isn't our fault. And, now, we should be all ready to start on another busy week.

WEST CAMP NEWS-Welcome to Troop 1113, Detroit Area Council. It's a long trip from Detroit!

Welcome to all the new leaders. Check with your SPL about what's going on or see your Commissioner:

Barry Aronson	--	Clark, Carson, Bridger
Tony Mockus	--	Boone, Frenont
Dave Ogg	--	All other Villages.

SPL Meeting-1:15, West Camp Office

All new Scoutmasters are welcomed to the Scoutcraft area for morning coffee daily.

Coming Events-Silly Day-Staff Hunt-Campfire and one more retreat. Silly Day will be Wednesday Morning-details in Dining Hall. Staff Hunt Day to be decided by SPL's. Retreat and Campfire on Friday.

Eco-Con-Papermaking session - 7:00 tonight for all Pulp and Paper people.

Wild Food Hikes - 9:00 - Tuesday and Wednesday; 2:00 - Wednesday.

ALL ORALS SHOULD BE COMPLETED TODAY OR TOMORROW FOR ANYONE TRYING TO GET AN ECO-CON MERIT BADGE!!

What Waterfront staffman, who teaches small boat sailing merit badge, tipped over his sailboat, 20 feet from the mooring? Ric - please teach your brother how to sail.

EAST CAMP NEWS-Iroquois Village has shower clean-up today.

Hours for the Quartermaster are 9-11 and 7-8. Outpost Commissary hours are 11-12 and 4-5.

Rumor has it that Mr. King has been stealing swims in the duckpond in the evenings. If this continues, the ducks are going to file an official protest!!

Have a good day--and SMILE!!!! (Please?)
