

MA KA JA WAN

SMOKE SIGNALS
Vol. 6

JULY 17, 1979
No. 22

Hi!! How did you enjoy summer those three or four days last week? I'm not sure, but I think that fall has arrived already! Sure hope not, but it really got cool last night. Maybe it's just a cool front that is passing through, and we might see summer again this year!

WEST CAMP NEWS-Silly Day-tomorrow morning breakfast.

Scoutercraft area is going strong again. Two new projects will be started today or tomorrow. All helpers welcomed.

Movie tonight at 8:30-West Camp Dining Hall. The movie is Walt Disney's "The Absent Minded Professor". All are invited.

Have you seen the archery patches and pins? You can become a modern day Robin Hood in a short time. See Ted Olt, archery is free, unless you lose the arrow.

Congratulations to the Handicraft area-they have a new addition-- a garbage can!!

Eco-Con-Tomorrow will be the last wild food hikes - 9:00 and 2:00.

All orals should be completed today!

Lumber is in for mammal houses and nesting boxes.

EAST CAMP NEWS-Communiques from the Eastern Front: Camp Tahatcheepookoo

Waterfront Zone-THEY ARE HERE!! Come to the waterfront and see them.

Menominee Village has shower clean-up today. See your Commissioner.

Today is horseback riding for the Eastern Front. See Tom following lunch. It only costs $3.00. You can go at 2-3-and 4:00.

Scoutmasters: You can buy skill awards (35¢) and High Adventure patches ($1.00) at the Eastern Command Post. See Tom.

We returned your gift, Chuck--Signed John, Rick, Matt & K.C.

Stay tuned to this paper for information dealing with the Boonie Bijou Theater. It's really super, so watch for tomorrow's Smokes.

(More Coming--)

Page 2-

Q.M.-LOST-One clipboard with essential information. If found, return to John Younts.

Eco-Con-There will be an edible plant hike tonight at 7:00 PM, featuring various teas, tubers, & berries. All are welcome, especially Wilderness Survival people.

Field Sports-Don't forget to register for the Archery Competition by end of program today. See Andy.

Plenty of targets and ammo. Troop shoot space still available. See Leadfoot.

Ton-They're coming!!!

FAMILY CAMP-Tonight at 8:30, there will be a movie at West Camp Dining Hall. Everyone is invited.

Wednesday night you are invited to eat with your Troop. Please let Nancy know if you are interested. $2.00 for adults, $1.50 for children 12 and under.

That's about it for this time. Even tho it's cool outside, it is a beautiful day. Get out and enjoy life--we only go around once, so don't blow it while you're here. And, remember to S-M-I-L-E!!!!

