JULY 19, 1979

No. 24

Well, gang, here we are to Thursday already--almost time to wrap up the 4th week of this 1979 camping season. Once you get rolling, the weeks sure go by fast. Things have been great so far--let's keep up the good work.

FROM WEST CAMP-SPL meeting after lunch in Scout Craft area. Eric Jensen will discuss the Staff Hunt.

Congratulations to Troop 83 on the Camp Shower. Outstanding job!!!!

Campsites are looking great-keep up the good work--"Swannie"

Horseback riding again on Friday-2-3-& 4. 10 riders maximum-$3.00 ea.

Scoutmasters-Snack time get-together at 7:30 PM, at the Commissioner Site, for check out procedure talk. It's a must for at least one leader per Troop.

Archery-Yeoman, Bowman and Archers!! Do you fit into any of these categories?? Come on down to Archery to try out the Camp Archery Awards Program. It's not too late to start. So, be there!!!

Eco-Con-Nature drawing contest-for details see Scott or Stephan!
Today is work day!! Come in at 2:00 sharp to complete projects.

Waterfront-On July 18th, at 5:17 PM, CDT, the West Staff and Troop 1113 gathered at the Western Front, for what proved to be grueling battle of wits and endurance. General Jensen led his company of seven men to total victory over Troop 1113 in waterpolo. By half-time, Troop 1113 was pleading for deliverance. By the end, the water had a red tint to it, from the blood that was shed by the troop members. The score was an embarrassing one: Staff-16, Troop 1113-1. Waterpolo, anyone? (Don't get too "big-headed", Staff--the season isn't over yet!!!)

Did you know that today is the first anniversary of the day a certain waterfront staffman capsized his rowboat, while teaching a rowing class? Chuck, will your brother ever learn?

MISCELLANEOUS-$5.00 reward for the return of a Texas Instruments Chrono watch. No questions asked. Return to East or West Camp Office.

Everybody from East and West Camps are invited to the East Dining Hall for a slide show on Israel and Scouting in that country. Time is 8:45. Stop by and see the show, and meet Ahituv. You'll enjoy the evening.
