Vol. 6

(The Only Daily Newspaper in Pearson, WI.) No. 25

Well, Troops, this is your last full day with us for this year. We sincerely hope that this has been a good time for all of you. We have all enjoyed having you here, and hope that you will all come back and see us again next year.

FROM WEST CAMP-Reminder to SPL's-Turn in the name of your "Silly Day" winner to "Swannie".

Retreat at flagpole-full uniform-5:45 PM.

Campfire tonight. Meet at the flagpole at 8:30. Plan a troop campfire after the campwide fire for your last night in camp.

All Scoutmasters or acting Scoutmasters-meet at the Commissioner Site at 7:30 PM today for check out procedures. Goodies will be served.

Reminder to Troops: All units will be served a lunch in the dining hall tomorrow. NO box lunches for early departures or scouts riding on the bus.

Safe trip home. You had a good two weeks and thank you for helping us celebrate the 50th Anniversary. From the "Staff"

TRIANGLE M RANCH-Today, at the ranch, will be the fourth period RODEO. The grand opening parade and flag ceremony will begin at 2:00. Events scheduled for today include, Barrels, Flag race, Rescue race, Pony Express race and many more. Be there!!

Triangle M Ranch Trading Post wishes to announce the arrival of a new shipment of western hats and belt buckles. Also on sale now, we have rain covers that fit "Smokey Bear" hats. Limited number of each. Get them while they last.

Ranch shirts are now available. The ranch shirt is a baseball style jersey, in red and white or blue and white.

All items available before, during and after the Rodeo today.

FROM EAST CAMP-There will be an important Scoutmasters meeting following lunch today. Sorry about the short notice, but it couldn't be helped.

All merit badge work must be completed by 5:00 PM today. Counselors, please turn in all your paper work by 6:00 PM.

(More on the way!!)

Jewish services today at 5:00 at the Chapel.

There will be a formal retreat at 5:45 PM in the Dust Bowl. Full uniform should be worn. The Eastern Zone Mess Hall Mistress will be the bugler, a first in our camp's history.

Tonight, at 8:45 PM, all Eastern Zone grenadiers are to assemble in the Dust Bowl for a night of R 'n R. If you didn't understand the above, the closing campfire is tonight.

Eco-Con-All badge work to be finished today. No projects will be begun after 2:00 this afternoon. If there are any questions about your advancement, ask Dave or Ken today!

T.P-Today is "Star" day at your neighborhood East T.P. What is a star? Are you a star? Come up and find out.

Waterfront-In commemoration of Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan Scout Reservation's 50th Anniversary, the East Camp Waterfront is proud to announce that by noon today, they will have produced their 50th Mile Swimmer of 3rd and 4th periods. Good going, guys!!

FROM AHITUV-Jewish Service, 5:00, at the Chapel. I would like to see everybody there, because this will be the last meeting.

FROM FAMILY CAMP-Happy Birthday, Andy!! "'Round the Mess Hall you must go,....."

Marty & Kellie did it again-they swam the Killian in 50 minutes. Nice going, girls.

There's a Rodeo today. Starts at 2:00. See you there!!

Due to the Rodeo, the Store will be closed from 2-3:30. Have a fun day!

That's it for this time. All you folks, have a safe trip home. Think of us kindly, and come on back again next year. We'll be here! Will you?? In the meantime, remember to SMILE, and may God bless. See ya'.....
