Hi! How do you like fall? This is kind of early, but it seems to me that there is just a touch of fall in the air. Sure hope it warms up again, so everybody can go swimming, and improve on their suntans a little. Maybe if we all think sun and warmth, it will happen! OK, on the count of three, think SUN. Ready? One-two-three--S - U - N !!!! Oh well, maybe it takes a little time to work. In the meantime.....

FROM WEST CAMP-Slide show tonight at 8:45 in the West Dining Hall by Ahituv Shiffman. The slides are Israel and Sc outing in Israel. The slides are most interesting and quite informative. Stop by and see them. Folks in Family Camp are invited, too.

All Scoutmasters and SPL's--there should be a filled red water bucket next to each tent that is being used; flag on flagpole; fire warden chart filled in with correct names, and shovel and fire broom in site. Do not use the firebroom for sweeping out tents or sweeping paths. The SPL should check the Commissioner Chart in dining hall for information on village bulletin boards. See "Swannie" of your commissioner for extra information sheets.

Horseback riding today at 2-3- and 4:00. Reservations can be made for the next two weeks. West rides on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

All High Adventure patches ($1.00) and skill awards, (35¢) available from West Camp Office.

Fishing Camp starts 10:00 Tuesday morning.

Thanks to the campers and staff that worked in the O/A Bowl last night.

Field Sports--Come on down to the ranges and try for the Camp Archery Association Awards or NRA Awards. There's something for everyone, so hurry on down!!!

T.P.--Come on down today for the first annual alarm day. If you are being served when the alarm goes off, you will win a free neckerchief.

FROM EAST CAMP--Good morning! Remember, while you're working on your skills, you can have some fun also.

Comanche Village has shower clean-up today--see your commissioners.

Horseback riding for East Camp is tomorrow, so see Tom for info.

All extra equipment (Mattresses, poles, tents, etc.) should be returned to the outpost commissary.

(Continue, please?)

Please remember to stay out of other villages, unless you're invited over. This especially applies to the "shortcut" through Blackfoot Village toward Camelot.

The fire-fighting equipment out near the Outpost Commissary is NOT to be played with or moved. It is there for a reason.

Scoutmasters-you can purchase skill awards (35¢) or High-Adventure patches ($1.00) from Tom.

Let's keep our trails free of litter; help keep Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan clean.

The East Camp Staff wishes to welcome P.S. to Kriegsgruppen.

Eco-Con-Team B-Env. Sci. report to Camelot at 2:00 today, prepared for an afternoon long, destination non-existent, environmental study hike. Mammals merit badge team A, report to Camelot at 3:00, PREPARED to work on requirements 1 & 2. Soil & Water Conservation team A, report to Camelot at 4:00. John Janke, report at 3:30, ready to go with F & W orals. Pulp and paper team A, report at 9:30 tomorrow. Be prepared by reading your merit badge book!!

Waterfront-Free swim today from 3-4. Canoe swamp times are filling up fast-reserve your time with John soon. To The Staff-The East Camp Pond is available to y'all until the shower house has hot water. Come on down and take a bath.

ORDER OF THE ARROW-Work project this evening at 8:15 in the O/A Bowl-Join in the choeifful service.

There will be an O/A Meeting for all members this afternoon at 1:00-West in West Camp Office; East in the O/A Lodge. There will be an O/A Lodge Executive Board meeting Wednesday at 1:00 at the O/A Lodge. ALL BOARD MEMBERS ATTEND.

There will be a Scoutmasters Dinner Tuesday evening at 6:00. I'll be there.

Ask your SPL what was discussed at the meeting this morning.

FROM AHITUV-Tonight at 8:45 at West Camp Dining Hall, I will show my slides. Everybody is invited. Scoutmasters, let the Scouts know.

FAMILY CAMP-Tonight at 8:30, there will be a campfire put on by Family Camp members. Contribute your talents by giving a skit, singing a song or just listening and eating marshmallows!!

That's it! No more! The end! Have fun! Please smile! See ya'.....
